ENTERTAINMENT IS NECESSARY

RESORTERS EXPECT MORE THAN HOTELS AND BATHS TO BE ATTRACTED HERE.

James R. Hayes, With 32 Years in Resort Hotel Experience, Believes
We Should Look to This Feature.

That entertainment for visiting patronage is necessary before Hot Springs can look to a return of that great prosperity he has always believed some day it would come in. is the statement of James R. Hayes, former lessee of the Park Hotel, and a resort hotel man with 32 years experience in the game, and thereby qualified to know from this experience.

Mr. Hayes has been one of those optimists with an abiding faith in Hot Springs as a resort. He came here years ago, looked the situation over, and declared forthwith that Hot Springs, with her hot water baths, and with forms of entertainment built up for the visitors, should receive the lion's share of that traveling public which seeks rest and recreation.

"But the recreation and the entertainment is as necessary as the hot water," says Mr. Hayes. "We should have miles of good roads through this country. The country is beautiful. The people like to get out. If Hot Springs had 100 miles of good road, stretching out into the mountain country, that fact alone would be worth thousands of visitors every year."

"Also we should give more attention to our social entertainment, and then I believe that we should have races. I do not believe other things formerly existing here should be returned, but the races would attract thousands, and they would give the city wide advertising and they certainly would not interfere with those coming who do not approve of racing, because they would not have to attend the races."

"Other resorts in the south are making strong bids for patronage. Florida is building roads, and building grand hotels, and furnishing every sort of amusement that will attract patronage. And Florida has not hot water. Our hot water feature is the substantial foundation of the resort, and with some essential forms of entertainment to go with this, Hot Springs would be the most prosperous city in the whole country. The opportunity is here, and it is a shame that it is not improved. Some day it will be, and when that day comes, Hot Springs will be a city sought by investors, because it will then be what I have predicted for it always—the most inviting resort in the whole world."

Billy Woods, the traveling representative of the Wabash, and another man in a position to know something of resort travel, through his 30 years of handling this business, says that he believes Hot Springs will get its portion of the resorters seeking rest and health this winter, but that the Florida resorts are making a strong bid for patronage with many forms of special entertainment, and that Hot Springs should reach out and try to get more than a sanitarium patronage.

His Stomach Troubles Over.
Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.

Notice is hereby given that claims filed by the creditors of Geo. H. Lower, or the Daily News, for probate, and allowance in the above entitled cause, will be taken up for consideration, and adjustment, at chambers in the Chancery court room at 10 a.m., Friday, January 9, 1914.

A. CURL,
Special Chancellor.

DATE FOR HEARING.
License Petitions Will Come up in County Court Next Wednesday.

County court having taken an adjournment January 14, it is expected that the petitions for liquor licenses will come up on that date. There has been much work during the past few days on the part of the prohibitionists. Attorney Davies, for the petitioners, said yesterday: "We have filed our petitions and are simply awaiting the action of the court. There seems nothing else to be done until we get the matter before court." Judge Sumpter, representing the prohibitionists, said yesterday that he had no further announcement to make on the subject, but that he still maintained there would not be liquor sold legally in Hot Springs for some time to come.

NAVY WOULD WEED OUT UNDESIRABLES

REAR ADMIRAL BLUE WOULD HAVE SAILORS DISCHARGED
AND NOT SENT TO PRISON.

Washington, Jan. 8.—A plea for the weeding out of undesirable men in the navy by "increasing the recruiting stations at the expense of the prisons," has been submitted to the house committee on naval affairs by Rear Admiral Victor Blue, chief of the bureau of navigation.

Admiral Blue said there was only a small percentage of navy offenders whose conduct involved prison sentences and that if they could be summarily discharged by the commanding officer, the navy would be better off and the government could save a large amount of money in prison expenses.

"If one-fourth of the money now spent on prisons were now added to recruiting expenses," he said, "the navy would be supplied with excellent men, permitting the discharge of the undesirable and dissatisfied. This would make desertions unnecessary. A recruit costs the government $20 to enlist and $60 for an outfit, while the average cost of a prisoner is from $450 to $500. Besides the service of a prisoner is dead loss. I think the punishments are too severe in a great many cases and this subject will receive in the very near future the serious consideration of the Navy Department."

GLASSY AMATEURS AT THE PRINCESS

YOUNG MAN WHO COMPOSES HIS OWN SONGS WILL HEAD THE NOVICES FRIDAY.

At the head of the amateur bill which follows the regular professional bill at the Princess tonight will be Will (Dice) Corcoran, a Hot Springs boy, who is a composer and song writer in his own right, and who will render his own compositions for the Princess patrons tonight. Corcoran has never been heard in public here, although he has been around the country a good deal and has gained somewhat of a reputation as an impromptu composer of songs. He promises some local hits at his initial appearance.

Little Miss Fletcher will appear for the second time tonight. At her former appearance she made a big hit and came within an ace of winning first prize at the first amateur night Manager Owens held.

Miss Dorothy Graham, a charming vocalist, and a Hot Springs girl, will be another splendid number among the vaudeville novices.

TOLLIVER JURY HARD TO SECURE

OF EIGHTY TALES MEN IN COURT
YESTERDAY TO 4 O'CLOCK ONLY ONE ADDED TO JURY.

Counsel For the Negro Woman Accused of Murder Release Three Jurors on Peremptory Challenges.

Seldom before in the history of criminal court procedure in this county have eight talesmen for jury service been called with a result that but one juror was added to a trial jury from the number. But when circuit court started its session yesterday morning in the Millie Tolliver murder case there were eight jurors in the box, and when court took a further recess at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon there were nine jurors in the box.

True, three of those who had previously been selected, had been released on the exercise of peremptory challenge by counsel for the defense. The three who had been selected, and who later were dropped by the defense, were H. J. Lotz, George W. Bray and Thompson Godwin.

The jurors who had been accepted out of the eighty names were J. M. Anderson, Joe Kemper and William Borman.

The nine jurors who at 4 o'clock were in the box were: Peter Muse, John W. Campbell, W. T. Hawkins, Ernest Simms, I. B. Forbes, Redmond Joyce, J. M. Anderson, Joe Kemper and Wm. Borman.

The court up to that time had excused 47, the state had excused three, and the defense had excused 15 peremptorily.

Sheriff Williams and Deputy Clerk Moyston made up the list of the last 20 names of the hundred talesmen at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and Sheriff Williams sent his deputies out to summon them, but the names in this last 20 seemed more scattered than had the names in the whole of the two 40 venires formerly drawn.

There was quite a crowd in the court room yesterday, indicating that there will be more than ordinary interest in the criminal charge which grew out of this tragedy. There are many witnesses to be examined by both the state and the defense, and it is not considered as likely now that the case will be finished before late Saturday afternoon, with the probability of a verdict, as is often the case when a case goes to a jury on Saturday.

At a night session called to order at 6 o'clock, there were fourteen talesmen examined, and from this number W. A. Kirk and H. A. Kizzia were selected as jurors. The court waited awhile on J. F. Poplin, who had been summoned in the country, only to find that he was disqualified because of opposition to capital punishment. Judge Cotham then instructed the officers to have other prospective jurors in the court room at 8:30 o'clock this morning, when he hoped to complete the jury and have the opening statements made by 9 o'clock.

The taking of evidence will begin probably by 10 o'clock, and the evidence taking will continue throughout the day.
